

Contemporary International Relations (36 hours)

Objectives

This course aims to study the major contemporary issues of International Relations in order to train a student who is able to perform conjuncture analysis.

Syllabus

US Foreign Policy in the Trump Government
Immigration and Refugees
Terrorism
The rise of the Chinese economy
The European crisis and Brexit
The Social Problems of Latin America and Africa
The Middle East Wars
Brazilian Foreign Policy

Course Readings (Authors)

Samuel Huntington
Henry Kissinger
Robert Fisk
Francis Fukuyama
Rubens Ricupero

Evaluation

Two tests and one paper
Lowest grade 0 (zero)
Highest grade 10 (ten)
Minimum grade for approval 6 (six)
Minimum attendance for approval 75%